

He Teaches My Hands to War

Strength for the battle

Strength for the fight (Repeat x 4)

He has given me strength for the battle

Against those that rose against me

He has given me the necks of my enemies

And teaches my hands to war

Ten thousand shall fall at my right hand

When the enemy sees he shall flee

I have covenanted with the Almighty

And nothing shall stand against me

My arms can bend a bow of bronze

God is my strength and power

And He makes my feet like the feet of a deer

And He makes my hands to war

And He makes my hands to war
